Dear Sir & friends:

I address you in the matter of one John M. Emeron a resident of this County and who holds a commission as Special Ranger from Adjt Gen'l Mabry.

I would respectfully request that you see the Adjt Gen'l and endeavor to have this party deprived on his rangership, as I think him unfit, as an officer & believe that to be the sentiment generally. He only makes use of his position for the purposes of private gain & cruelty. I am informed on good authority & have reason to believe it to be true that he is the proprietor of a low gambling dive on the hill and that he terrorizes Mexican citizens into contributing toward his support by threatening them with arrest - prosecution etc

We have sufficient officers here who are efficient - elected by our people - to perform police duty, and I do not see why the State of Texas should place a man in this city to perform their duties and especially this character of an individual.

Convictions are impossible on his evidence as the Jurors will not believe him his cases usually being the result of personal spite or revenge & are not filed in the interest of law & order. Only a few days ago he unmercifully & brutally beat up an inoffensive half drunken Mexican & evidently with but ^{little} very or no provocation. Whatever & a case is now filed against
